

WHAT'S YOUR STORY?

Writing Activity
Newspaper Report

Features of a Newspaper

Feature	Example
Newspaper Name
Headline
Photograph with caption
Reporters Name
Subheading

Evidence of past tense
Clear Paragraphs
Evidence of 3rd Person
Evidence of direct speech
Evidence of indirect speech
Find What? When? Who? Where? Why?	What? When? Who? Where? Why?

LINDORE NEWS

at The Alnwick Garden

Headline – this should be catchy and use alliteration, onomatopoeia, rhyme or poem.

Introductory paragraph – this should include the 5W's:

What?
When?
Who?
Where?
Why?

Photograph or picture.

The details for your report should be written in columns and include the following:

- Clear paragraphs.
- Details in chronological order.
- Facts.
- Third Person.
- Past Tense.
- Examples of both indirect (reported) speech and direct speech.
- Formal language.

Caption

The details for your report should be written in columns and include the following:

- Clear paragraphs.
- Details in chronological order.
- Facts.
- Third Person.
- Past Tense.
- Examples of both indirect (reported) speech and direct speech.
- Formal language.

Write a conclusion paragraph.

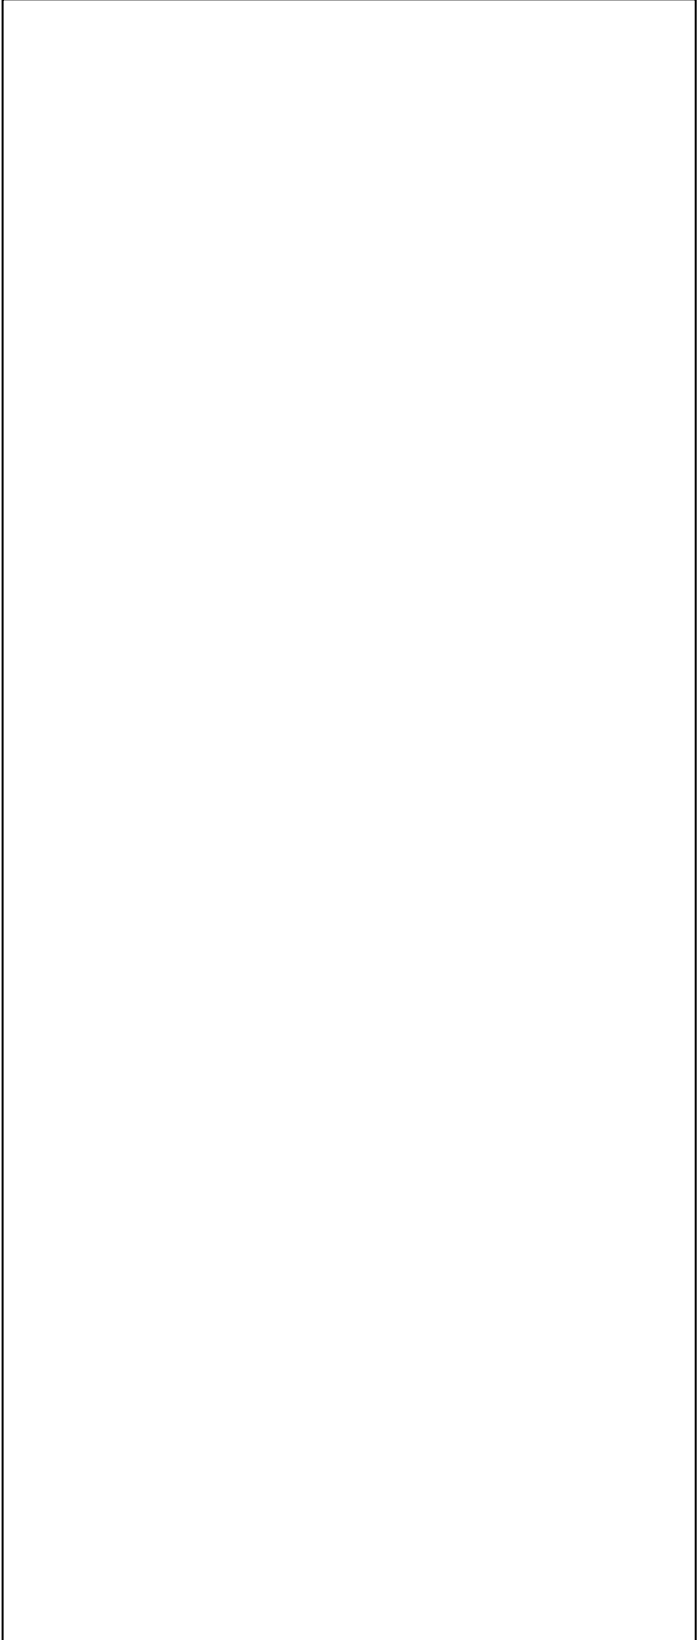

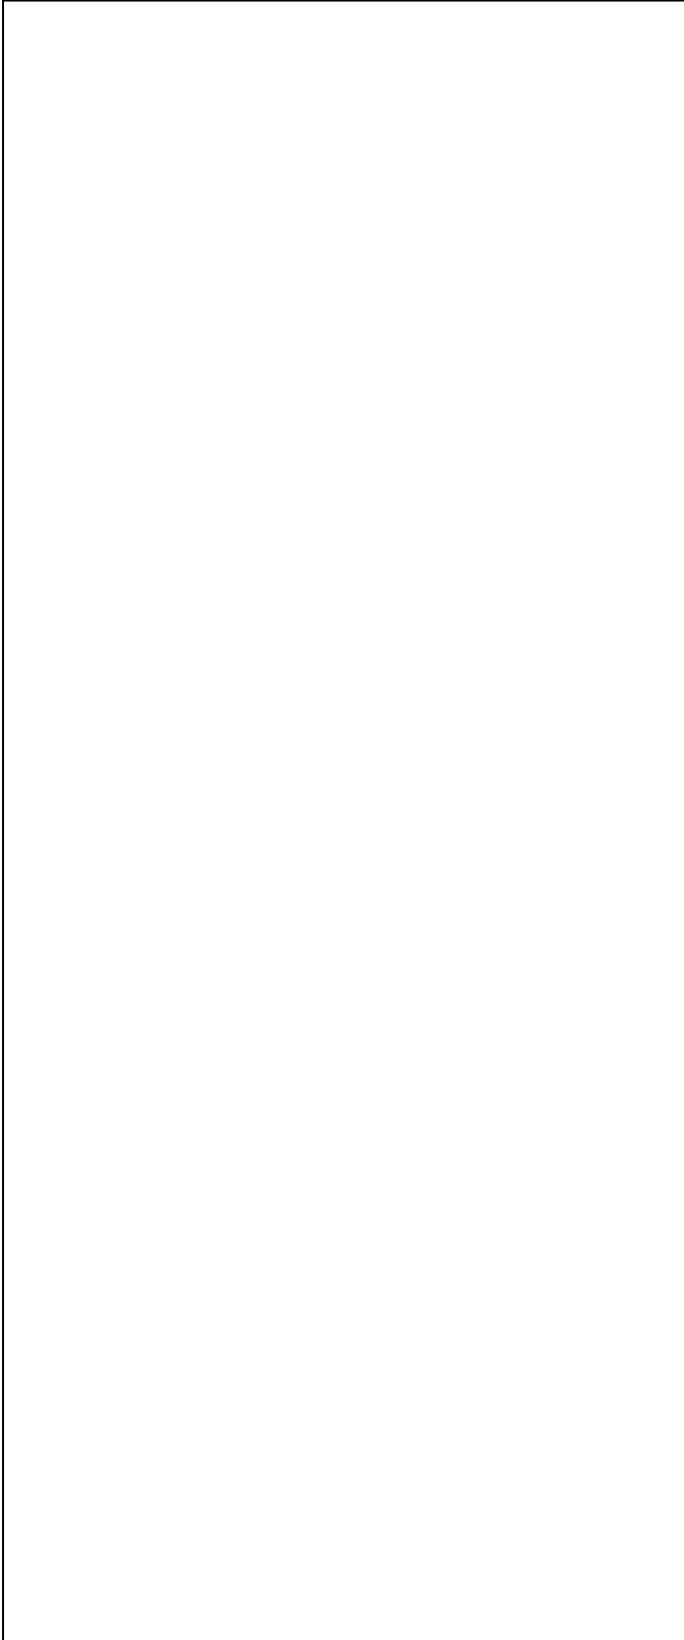

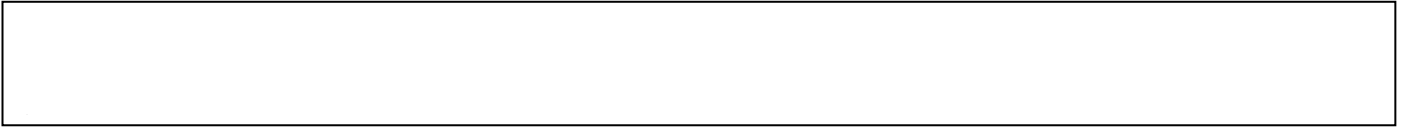

Reporter's Name.

LIDOREI

at The Alnwick Garden

NEWS

LIDORE NEWS

at The Alwick Garden

[Empty rectangular box]

[Lined writing area with 10 horizontal lines]

[Empty rectangular box]

[Lined writing area with 1 horizontal line]

[Lined writing area with 20 horizontal lines]

[Lined writing area with 12 horizontal lines]

[Lined writing area with 5 horizontal lines]

[Lined writing area with 1 horizontal line]